

PROGRAMME

Tools for Urban Climate Adaptation Training Days

Turku, 29th November

Venue: Sininen huone, Vanha Suurtori 3, 20500

- 09:30 Coffee and registration
- 10:00 Welcome and introduction, Björn Grönholm, UBC Sustainable Cities Commission
- 10:05 Tour de table: New challenges – New solutions
- Discussion led by John Matthews
- 10:35 Finnish National Adaptation Plan, Saara Lilja-Rothsten, Natural Resources Department, Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry
- 10:55 Leg stretcher break
- 11:05 Introduction to bottom-up methodologies, John Matthews, Alliance for Global Water Adaptation (AGWA)
- CRIDA & World Bank Decision Tree Framework.
 - Eco-engineering Decision Scaling (EEDS): An inclusive approach.
- 11:45 Working through a Collaborative Risk Informed Decision Analysis (CRIDA), Ad Jeuken, Research Institute Deltares
- 12:30 Networking lunch
- 13:30 The iWater project – Integrated Storm water Management, Nika Kotoviča, City Development Department, Riga City Council
- 13:50 Climate change adaptation measures in the City of Pori, Matti Lankiniemi, Environmental Agency, City of Pori
- 14:05 City of Helsinki Storm water management program, Kajsa Rosqvist, Urban Environment Division, City of Helsinki
- 14:20 How can adaptive tools/methodologies be used to support decision making in an uncertain environment?
Discussion led by John Matthews and Ad Jeuken
- 15:20 Summary and next steps, UBC Sustainable Cities Commission

For more information contact:

Mariia Andreeva – Project Officer at:
mariia.andreeva@turku.fi

Sign up here

Organizers:

Co-financed by: