

Baltic Urban Lab Good Practices Database for Brownfield Redevelopment

Baltic Urban Lab has collected examples of brownfield regeneration projects from the Baltic Sea region and beyond to share examples of how cities have successfully managed complex urban regeneration projects. Cities around the region with similar challenges can learn from these examples. In addition, a collection of tested citizen participation tools is available in order to get concrete ideas and inspiration for stakeholder involvement activities.

Next Norrköping
Kvalitetsprogram Inre hamnen - etapp 1

Image: City of Norrköping

Example: Quality Program for the Inner Harbor in Norrköping

Access the Baltic Urban Lab Good Practice Database for Brownfield Redevelopment for more good practices:

http://www.balticurbanlab.eu/good_practice

