

Climate budget training course offered by the Climate-4-CAST project Module 2: Obtaining mandate and setting cooperation

29 January 2026 at 10.00-12.30 EET / 9.00-11.30 CET

Registration link

Agenda

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 10.00-10.10 | Welcome to the training: Introduction of the Climate-4-CAST project and the training course
Donald Alimi, HafenCity University Hamburg
Olena Zinchuk, Union of the Baltic Cities Sustainable Cities Commission |
| 10.10-10.30 | C40 overview of Climate Budgeting Programme and advice to the cities
Astrid Svensson, C40 |
| 10.30-11.00 | How to start climate budgeting process: prerequisites and foundation, local context
Hannes Anagrius, Uppsala University
Kimberly Tatum, HafenCity University Hamburg |
| 11.00-11.20 | Moderated discussions and Q&A in the breakout rooms |
| 11.20-11.30 | Short break |
| 11.30-12.00 | Building understanding and capacity across departments: city case examples <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Riga, Latvia
Inga Pelša• Vienna, Austria
Philipp Sindelar |
| 12.00-12.10 | Case example: how to start climate budgeting in a specific strategic sector <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Norderstedt, Germany
Herbert Brüning |
| 12:10-12:30 | Next module information
Olena Zinchuk, UBC Sustainable Cities Commission |